

Why Do A First Look

Hey,

Before we move forward, I just wanted to touch base and make sure we're on the same page about how your wedding day might flow, especially when it comes to the First Look.

In many weddings I've been part of, couples have chosen to see each other before the ceremony in a quiet, private moment. It's often one of the sweetest and most meaningful parts of the day. A First Look allows for:

- A calmer, more intentional timeline
- Extra time together before the rush of the day
- More portraits of the two of you while the light is soft and natural

That said, it's completely your choice whether or not to share a First Look. There's no right or wrong here. I simply like to explain that many of the relaxed, golden-light portraits you see in my work come from days that included one.

If you decide you'd like to move forward, I'll prepare your booking proposal and we'll take the next step together.

Warmly,

Darrien Peck
